Re: Continuance of Staff for rationing work at Chichaballapur

A 31-46.

Letter no. C, 7658/46-7 dated the 14th June 1947 from the Director of S.S. states that the proposals for the introduction of Statutory Rationing to Andhra Pradesh, Chichaballapur, Chintamani & Bannurpet have been forwarded for sanction on 13-6-47.

6) Subtd: The proposals for the introduction of rationing in the above mentioned towns, received from the Director of S.S. for sanction on 13.6.47 is being dealt with separately. (Q8572) Further information viz the list of officers to be appointed as A.R.O.s has been called for and the Director's reply is awaited.

7) It is for orders whether the existing staff of Food Inspector and one peon at Chichaballapur may be continued till the introduction of legal case

Rationing

8) The G.O. of 25/1/47 sanctioning the continuance of the post of the Food Inspector and one peon is based on the hope that the D.F.S. would send up proposals for introduction of statutory rationing in Chichaballapur town. The proposal has been received and is being worked up separately. As it would be not desirable to dislocate the work till statutory rationing is introduced, it would be necessary to approve the proposal of the D.F.S. for a period of six months only or till legal rationing is introduced.
